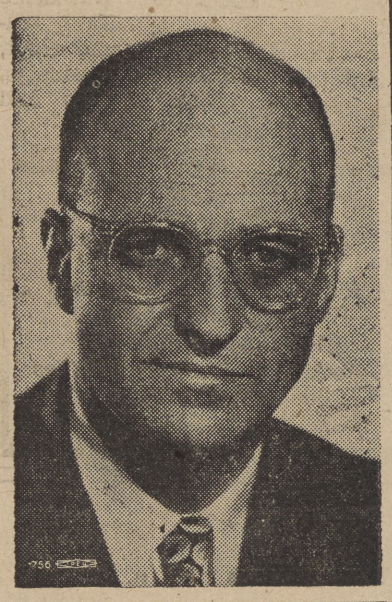
Roosevelt to Make "Platform Tour" Of Orange County

Jimmy Roosevelt, candidate for governor of California will make a speaking tour of Orange county on Tuesday, April 11. His itinerary during the day will bring him to Anaheim at 11:50 to 12:30 p.m.



A rally will start at 8:00 in the evening at the Santa Ana High school auditorium. He will travel in a converted army semi-trailer equipped with an observation platform which he will use in his appearances.

Said In Cypress

That one of the most encouraging statements made by Glenn Hendricksen in his talk before the veterans Sunday afternoon was with regard to the Long Beach naval hospital. Plans at present call for its closing. Figures submitted to the investigating committee showed that Long Beach naval hospital is operated at a cost of $9.59 per man, per day, the lowest of any hospital on the west coast. It is not contemplated to close other hospitals with much higher operating costs, including Santa Marguerita, at $16 per man per day. What happens to government installations in Long Beach is of particular interest to a great many residents in this area.

That Sam Rosen has done the town a great service. He has taken it upon himself to have a double fire hydrant installed on his property on Walker street near Orange. It is difficult to conjecture just what difference this might have made in the results of the two disastrous fires which have occurred in recent months if water had been available in the neighborhood.

That "Barney" Barnhart must be psychic. Just after purchasing a television set to be enjoyed in his quarters in the fire station, he comes down with a version of the flu epidemic going around. And when "Barney" stays home from his duties as custodian at the school grounds, you know he's sick!

That instead of celebrating his and wife Alice's eighth wedding anniversary Tuesday, Forrest "Frosty" Lowrey was busy in the service of the churches preparing the page in this issue

EASTER SERVICES AT SUNRISE

EASTER SERVICES at sunrise are a tradition in Southern California and next Sunday at 5:30 a. m., services again will be held under the blossom-laden Wistaria Vine at Sierra Madre. The Rev. Joseph Larson, well-known Pasadena minister, will conduct the rites before the cross at the Wistaria Vine gardens. The famous vine, now covered by more than a million ladender blossoms, will be open to the public through April. PHOTO BY HANK HOAG

CORRECTION

The schedule of James Roosevelt, who it was stated would appear in Cypress April 11, has been changed. The complete route for that day appears elsewhere in this issue.

Further information may be obtained by calling KImberly 3-9521, newly opened headquarters of the Democratic Central committee at 118 North Sycamore in Santa Ana.

William Slape Speaker Here

One of the largest groups to gather in Cypress under the sponsorship of a single organization held a meeting in the utility room of the school house Tuesday evening.

Beginning with a pot luck dinner, Democrats from west Orange county listened to speeches endorsing candidates whose names will appear on the ballots for the primary election in June.

Lester Van Tatenhove, chairman of the Orange County Democratic Central committee, introduced Carl J. Sanders, Jr., of Cypress, who performed ably in the role of master of ceremonies.

Speakers were Dan O'Hanlon, candidate for state assembly; William Slape, House of Representatives candidate; Sydney Pellew representing Jimmy Roosevelt, candidate for governor and Jimmy Walker, who spoke in behalf of Helen Gahagan Douglas, a candidate for Congress.

Special recognition was given Mrs. Dorothy Lukens for her table arrangements which featured spring flowers and to A. E. "Pat" Arnold who made the coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Placey are new residents at the Winfield Trailer park.

Baptist Church Plans Full Week Of Special Meets

A series of inspirational meetings has been planned for every evening of next week, beginning with special services Easter Sunday, at the First Baptist church.

The Rev. W. V. Buckner, pastor of the church at the corner of Watson and Camp Sts., will bring Bible messages each evening at 7:30 o'clock on the subjects, "Facts of the Resurrection," "Hope of the Resurrection," and "Results of the Resurrection of the Body of Jesus Christ."

Don Roquemore will have charge of the singing and Jerry Alleman will furnish the piano music.

Special Easter services Sunday start with Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. and an Easter sermon at the 10:45 morning worship hour.

Everyone is invited to attend Sunday and throughout the week.

New Business Handles Ceramics And Supplies

A new business which is announcing its opening in Hawaiian Gardens gives every indication of proving to be popular with female population hereabouts.

Not only will the Carson Ceramic studio be able to furnish gifts for special occasions upon a four-day notice, but Mrs. Josephine B. Ingels, the owner, will hold free classes in order to instruct others who are interested in the art.

Mrs. Ingels and her husband, William Ingels, live on the premises at 12422 Carson Ave. He is employed at Douglas. At the present time they are enjoying a visit during the school vacation from her daughter and son, Elaine and Kenneth Looman, who live in Bishop.

A member of the Busy Bees club, Mrs. Ingels is acquainted in Cypress as well as in her home town.

Notice

Today, Friday at 12:30 o'clock, a union pre-Easter service will be held at the Cypress Church of the Nazarene, on Walker St. just south of Lincoln Ave.

The six ministers of the six Cypress and Hawaiian Gardens churches participating will offer short sermons. Special music will be provided. Theme of the meeting is "Learning of Jesus, How to Live and How to Die."

Many of the business firms will close during the hour in order to permit full attendance.

Churches cooperating are the Nazarene, First Baptist and Faith Tabernacle in Cypress and the Carson Avenue Brethren, Church of God and Four Square church in Hawaiian Gardens.

Everyone is cordially invited, regardless of faith, to join in the combined church meeting.

End Red Cross Drive in Cypress

Final tally of funds received locally for the Red Cross drive last month shows that the Anaheim quota is $212 richer for the effort of its neighbor.

Mrs. T. J. Purdy, chairman, reports that of this amount $11 came from the elementary school, $110 from the downtown section captained by Haskell A. Kelley and the balance from volunteers who worked in the residential section.

The amount collected in this area last year was only $73.

CYPRESS VETERANS TOLD WHY HOOVER REPORT IS NOT FAVORABLY ACCEPTED

Glen Hendrickson, service department officer for the California VFW, told Cypress veterans Sunday why they should be on guard when listening to facts about the Veterans administration as presented by the Hoover commission.

The Hoover report has been prepared as a means of cutting down government expenditures, and has advised that certain divisions of the veterans administration be abandoned in order to achieve this goal.

Hendrickson pointed out such points as the expenditures of the VA for printing. The figure was approximately seven million dollars. Then he went on to emphasize that the seven million was for the fiscal year 1948, when the VA was handling its peak load, and not for 1950, as the Hoover report would apparently wish the reader to believe. The latter figure will be only about two million dollars, he pointed out.

Hendrickson went on to describe the hospitalization situation for veterans through the VA, and the need to keep up that work, besides most of the other points connecting the VA with the Hoover report.

Remember, Voters

The last day for voters to register for the June 6 primary elections is April 13.

Voters in this area may register with Mrs. Frank E. Williams, 9060 Walker St.

Call Anaheim 60458 for information.

Club to Serve Spaghetti Dinner

Committee in charge of arrangements for the Cypress Woman's Community club dinner is asking the public to not forget the date—next Wednesday evening, April 12.

The meal will be served in the school cafeteria from six to eight o'clock. Prices are 85c per plate for adults and 35c for children. In addition to real Italian spaghetti and meat balls, the menu will include salad and French bread, apple crisp and coffee. A five dollar door prize will be given away.

Tickets to the dinner may be purchased by the public from any one of the members, or at the door.

This and That Here and There

SPECIAL MEETING

At Tuesday night's meeting of the Busy Bee club held at the VFW hall, April 11 was set for the men interested in forming an Odd Fellows lodge to get their organization underway. Potential members may contact Elmer Corby or Evie Junker in the barber and beauty shop at 5525 Lincoln Ave.

The club will hold its drawing for the set of silverware to be given away this Saturday, April 8. Members will be on the corners of Lincoln Ave. and Walker Sts. with tickets to sell. Drawing will be at 1:30 o'clock sharp.

CIRCUS HI-LITES

What is said to be the first circus ever to come to Cypress blew into and out of town so fast that no publicity could be given it in the weekly newspaper.

The circus is mostly a family affair, the present owner being a 17-year-old boy, Charles E. Sparton the fifth. Claimed to be the oldest traveling circus in the United States, the organization is on its 65th annual tour.

Orlo H. Wach, advance publicity manager, was once known as "Captain Orlo," a lion tamer. At 50, Wach says he has retired from that part of the business. During his career he traveled all over the world.

Local organizations were given an opportunity to sponsor refreshment stands on the big day, Wednesday, and were allowed to keep the proceeds. Permission to show in Cypress came through the Chamber of Commerce. Firemen had the coffeee concession, Busy Bees the pop and the VFW auxiliary sold hot dogs.

Trash Pick-up

Officials of the county road department have sent word that trucks will circulate through town on Wednesday, May 3. This is the same date as last year, and while a little late to conform to the county clean-up week, residents may plan to place trash along their curbs for pick-up.

The truck does not pick up garbage, but will carry away accumulated brush, bottles, tin cans, etc.

Remember the date—Wednesday, May 3—and remind your friends and neighbors.

EASTER AND THE WORLD

At this Easter season there are many signs of a great revival in religion. Many churches which once attracted sparse congregations have been filled in recent months. The sale of religious literature is also reported to have greatly increased.

What's the reason? There may be a number of reasons, but probably one of the biggest is the feeling of human helplessness in the face of the fantastic forces which man's scientiic knowledge has unleased. The possibility of further and even more destructive forces in the future, against which there would be virtually no human defense, could be very persuasive in turning thought toward divine protection.

No doubt many people realize today that the world's real need is not for increased knowledge of matter and its explosive possibilities but rather for a deeper understanding of Spirit. The Man of Galilee whose Resurrection we celebrate at this time proved by what are called miracles the ability of spiritual forces to subdue the elements of earth. He walked on the water, the storm was stilled at His command, the five thousand were fed with but a few loaves and fishes, the sick were healed, the dead were raised.

Truly, there is much more in Jesus' teachings than the world generally has comprehended. But if the adversity of our day and the forebodings of the future are turning men toward a deeper study and practice of what He taught these trials will surely prove to be blessings in disguise.—California Commentator

"REGISTER" YOUR VOTE

If you want to vote in the June primary election—and you should certainly want to—you must register not later than April 13, unless. of course, you are already registered.

There is often a tendency among citizens to consider the primary balloting as of little importance. NO election is ever unimportant. Even if in some cases the issues do not seem vital or there appears to be little significance in the choice of candidates, the fact remains that the right to express our views or name our leaders is vital and significant.

Too many elections have been swung one way or the other by the indifference of the voters. And almost invariably those who complain the loudest about the way the Government is run are the slackers who either fail to register or neglect to go to the polls.

The June primary is a very important election. It gives the citizens of California the chance to nominate the party candidates for the November ballot. Nomination is one step towards election and the choice of the men to handle the affairs of our state on the local, state and national level in the years immediately ahead will have much to do with the degree of efficiency, economy and progress we'll experience in those years.

So, if you have changed your address or changed your name (a woman who married, for instance) since you last registered, or if you failed to vote in the last general election, you must register now to be eligible for the June primary.

I RISE TO REMARK
by John Phillips

Because 1950 is an election year, and a very important one, voters in predominantly agricultural areas such as the 22nd Congressional District, will soon be deluged with "information" about the administration's agricultural policy. This centers principally in the Brannan plan, an unworkable scheme to let the farmers have their cake and eat it too—at a fantastic cost to both city and farm taxpaying families.

The Brannan plan, actually, can best be described in a simile; a farmer giving himself a blood transfusion from one arm to the other, and spilling a couple of pints in the process.

But it makes big promises in large print, and offers such attractive and convenient ways to increase controls and bureaucratic overhead, that the administration is pushing it hard. In this election, Congressional candidates who have administration backing will mouth much about the plan, although neither they, nor the author, can successfully explain it in understandable detail. As a sidelight, Secretary Brannan has ideas of becoming the next vice president.

Protests

Brannan's plan, made public in April last year, caused a storm of protest in the Congress and out. Much of it has come from agriculture itself.

The basic issue is whether we shall collect untold billions in taxes, pass part of it out in cash subsidies to farmers, and invoke the thousands of acreage and marketing controls, the straitjacket rules, regulations, decisions, orders and the like which will be absolutely necessary, or whether the farmers shall have freedom and the protection of reasonable, flexible price supports which will not destroy the competitive, free enterprise system. The Republican party has a constructive program. If you would like to review this plan, I'll be glad to send you a copy.

At this point let's take a look at Secretary Brannan's program. In an oversimplified way, the plan proposes to guarantee a high income to farmers by paying them the difference, in cash, between what they get for their crops in the market and the guarantee. This difference, of course, would be paid by your taxes.

For example, let us say the average price received by farmers for a quart of milk was 10 cents, and the support price was 12 cents. The government then would pay milk producers 2 cents for each quart sold, regardless of the price received. It would work the same way on beef, pork, eggs, fruit, vegetables, and other crops.

Drop Prices

To attract the consumers, the food-buying housewives, the government under the plan would allow prices to fall where they may. Presumably, they would drop considerably, as the buying of surplus foods would cease.

If the Utopian dream of keeping consumer prices low, and farm incomes high could be achieved by the Brannan plan, it would obviously not be under a barrage of heavy fire from such organizations as the American Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange, which has described the plan as "an internal cancer that would ultimately destroy our free enterprise system." Nor would that part of Congress which believes in the great principles of representative government be so bitterly opposed.

The dream and promises cannot be fulfilled. The binding of agriculture in bureaucratic chains, the staggering costs, the certainty of continuous and rigid controls over production, marketing, and ultimately over prices, and the totally undesirable political implications of the plan, make the risk of even trial adoption of the program on a few crops absolutely unwise.

There are defects in the present agricultural law which are being corrected. The Brannan myth, however well intended, and however much it is promoted by the administration, is certainly not the answer. The road to socialism, also, is paved with good intentions.

Small Fry Attend Birthday Party For Charlee Arnold

Mrs. Elmer McWilliams feted her small granddaughter, Charlee Arnold, at a lovely party Saturday afternoon, April fool's day, at the family's home at 5561 Bishop St., in honor of her seventh anniversary.

Mrs. M. S. Robins, Charlee's aunt, kept the small ones amused with a series of carefully planned games. The little celebrant opened her many appropriate gifts before refreshments were served.

Present were Denny Copeland of Bellflower, Rebecca Keesee, Dotty Whitbeck, Virginia Holt, Marietta Holborow, Katherine Clark, Janice Fitch, Leland Miller, David Thomas, Arnie Hoyt, and the honoree's little cousins, Gary and Leslee Robins and Bobby Fogg.

MRS. RAY LUCAS GIVES SHOWER FOR MRS. PRIDDY

Mrs. Ted Priddy was pleasantly surprised Friday evening by her neighbor, Mrs. Ray E. Lucas. When invited to the latter's home for the evening, she was not expecting to meet the group of friends who had gathered to shower her with gifts for her layette.

Games suitable to the occasion were played during the evening. Winning prizes were Mrs. Bea Hahn, Mrs. Ann Wedeking and Mrs. Olive Williams.

The beautifully wrapped packages were placed atop the television set, and were arranged among decorations in the Easter motif. After the honoree opened them, the hostess served a light supper to her guests.

Present also were Mmes. Maxine Williams, Virginia Bott, Patty Johnson, Ellen Jennings, Lucile Christopher, Virginia Daniels, Beth Reisig, Jean Kreissler, Francis Demiris, Joan Avels, and Betty Knauss. Mrs. Louise Begley and Mrs. Dorothy Smith sent gifts, but were unable to be present.

Eight-year-old Raymond Robinson is spending the school vacation from his home in San Diego visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hubbard and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Menker in Huntington Park. Raymond, who rode the streamliner to Santa Ana, was met by the Hubbard's and finds "helping" his uncle with the tractor work in the orange groves is a fascinating task.

Mrs. Emily Fernandez, who has been seriously ill with a heart ailment for three months, is much improved at her home at 5701 Lincoln Ave. She walked uptown Friday afternoon for the first time, and may have visitors.

Miss Elizabeth Dickerson, district superintendent of the Cypress elementary school, spent the vacation period attending an administrator's meeting in Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Parker and daughter Terry Lee were interested visitors at the hobby show in Los Angeles on Sunday. The Parkers live on Danny Ave.

J. R. Coburn, district road foreman, will have charge of the county trash pick-up scheduled for May 3. Coburn, Cypress resident, has been in the employ of the county for the past 22 years.

Gary McLaughlin is substituting for Wayde Martin this week as "shine" boy in Corby's barber shop. Wayde is taking over at home while their mother, Mrs. Vic Konig is in the hospital, by keeping an eye on Vickie and Margaret during spring vacation from school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas and David took advantage of the Easter school vacation and their day of rest Tuesday from duties at the Triangle Drive-Inn to motor to Burbank, Palmdale and home through San Bernardino. They found the desert clime to be very warm.

Leonard Vos, helper at Central Feed store, and his son enjoyed a couple of brief visits to Lake Henshaw fishing while the boy was out of school this week.

Chemist Segel, from the state fire marshal's office, inspected the tents of the circus Wednesday when it was quartered here. With a few minor changes, the company was given official approval as its road tour began.

The siren which was heard Tuesday morning was reported to be a false alarm. No one was on the phone when it was answered by Cypress volunteer firemen.

Entertain Kiddies At Birthday Party

A birthday party last Sunday afternoon, April 2, marked the anniversary of her fifth year for Sandra De Polter, who is never known by any other name than "Sandy."

Small guests enjoyed watching the television and played games outside, supervised by the celebrant's father, John De Polter.

Before refreshment time, "Sandy" opened her many appropriate gifts.

Mrs. De Polter cut and served the birthday cake which was decorated with Easter eggs and five candles. Jello, ice cream and soda pop completed the birthday bill of fare. Each child was delighted to receive a magic hat favor, filled with candy.

Present were David Thomas, Michael and Dickie Brannan, Michael and Susie Nolan, Jackie and Bobby Wilson, Anthony Anderson, Corrine Best and "Sandy's" sister, Carolyn.

Roger S. Watson Files for County Tax Collector

Feeling that there should be more attention from the taxpayers to this important county office, Roger S. Watson, Real Estate Broker and Rancher of Santa Ana and Costa Mesa, today formally announced his candidacy.

As he filed his papers for nomination, signed by voters in Anaheim, Fullerton, Garden Grove, Santa Ana, Laguna, Newport Beach and Costa Mesa, Watson stated, "The time has come for a change in our tax officials. Year after year, the same clique run unopposed and I believe that the overburdened taxpayers want a complete change in management. As a business man, I propose an efficient, up to date tax office."

Watson, whose real estate office and 10 acre ranch home are located on Newport Blvd. and Palisades Road, Santa Ana Heights, was born in N.Y. in 1902, attended the University of Virginia, is a veteran of Co. K, 7th Regiment, N.Y. and came to California in 1935. During the last war he served as Industrial Specialist, being sent by the Government to the Forest Products Laboratories, University of Wisconsin, for specialized training in aircraft plywood and played an important part in the production of invasion gliders.

Coming to Orange County in 1940, Watson resided on Balboa Island, established the Watson Woodcraft Shops, mfg. paddleboards and boats, which business he sold in 1946. His hobby is boats and he has crossed the Atlantic on a square rigger.

He is a member of the Costa Mesa Citizen's Council, Chamber of Commerce, Newport Beach Business Men's Ass'n., Kiwanis Club, is a Free and Accepted Mason, and Vice Pres. of the Santa Ana Heights Water Co.

'Chit-Chat from The Teeners'

By Gloria McKinzie

Jim Hoxsie, Bob Van Dyke, Neal Collins, and Warner Gedney enjoyed a day at Laguna Beach Saturday.

Why is it this certain gentleman calls everyone "Baby"? Sounds cute!

Why is it that a few teen-agers have to ruin a dance for others? Every time something gets going good, along comes a boom and everything geos out the window. Also a lot of hard work.

Betty Murphy had another get-together again Friday night. Warner Gedney, Kay Kelliker, Neal Collins, Marian Simmons, Tommy Cook, Tom Beaudreau, Vance Newkirk, Peg Flynn, Ralph Mason, Duane Duncan, Shirlee Beaudreau, Bev Cook, and Louie Stephens were those there this time.

Russel Noe, Johnny Wright, Tom Cook, Bev Cook, Peg Flynn, Betty Murphy and Kay Kelliker were trying to ditch Vance Newkirk, Ralph Mason, Neal Collins, Warner Gedney and Louie Stephens Saturday night. Did they succeed?

Taking a walk around the blocks for no reason at all Monday afternoon were Shirlee, Marian, Bev and Rosemary. It seems they were bored with being out of school!

Joan Saylor and Marie Schelling enjoyed a day at Seal Beach Monday.

After the teen-agers at Cypress broke up Saturday night Whit McLaughlin and Pat Dewell enjoyed a few dances at the Artesia Hi-teeners'. Vance Newkirk and Ralph Mason were also there.

How did the beach party that Jim Hoxsie was going to Saturday night turn out?

Phillip Arbiso and Joe Lorenzo were seen enjoying a trip to Merced while a certain girl sat home lonely.

What happened to a certain grey car at Knott's Berry Farm Sunday?

Saturday afternoon enjoying a movie were Rosie Dean and Nolan Blackman and Rosetta Smith and Narcie Ferreira.

Shirley Houghton and Ike Hilabrants enjoyed a show Saturday night. Ike has been her steady now for a month and three weeks.

Kay Kelliker and Don McLaughlin rate with the best personalities of the week, while Delores Cardin and Phillip Arbiso walk away with the best dressed of the week title.

Tom Beaudreau had trouble with his car Tuesday as usual! ! It seems he took out and put in his car motor three times and still can't find what is ailing it.

Hey you guys and gals did all of you see the circus put on Wednesday by the Sparton Bros.?

Who were the Hi-teen girls over at the circus grounds Monday? Did you gals have fun?

Who was the certain girl sitting with Duane Duncan Tuesday afternoon by the M & H Market? Not Pauline Houghton by any chance was it? Watch her Minard!

Mrs. John Richie, a resident on Saint Ann Ave., was taken to Community hospital Thursday in a serious condition requiring medical attention.

Musicomedy Given By 7th Graders

Under the direction of their teacher, Mr. Visel, pupils in his room prepared and executed a "musicomedy" at the school auditorium last Thursday evening. Proceeds for the benefit of the Cypress school athletic award fund amounted to $30.

The play was based on an original story called "Die at Sunup," written by class member Eldon Laird.

Particularly noteworthy were the stage backgrounds and the ease and cleverness by which changes in scenes were achieved.

The players all performed in an excellent manner.

Appearing in the cast of characters were the following: Murder, Joe Huckabee; Killer, Henry Mason; Cactus Joe, Virgil Ehrig; Crosscut Kid, Baldy Laird; Sheriff, Ernie Scott; Punchy, Ruth Harris; Trader Jim, Gary Stigall; Hank, Dean Watson; Cooped-Up, Barbara Palmer; Little Leonard, Leonard Slabaugh; Reckless Rosetta, Susan Zwart; Bunkhouse boys and Gay 90's girls from the class.

Roberta Raub was a creditable master of ceremonies.

James A. Musick To Seek Reelection As Sheriff

Sheriff James A. Musick has made a formal announcement of his intention to seek reelection to the office at the primary election in June, 1950.

Sheriff Musick made his announcement with the statement that he will base his entire campaign on the record of his office.

"The past performance of any public official," he said, "is the best evidence of his qualifications."

James A. Musick

In this connection, the sheriff referred to the official annual examination of Orange County offices made by the 1949 Grand Jury. When the Grand Jury concluded its official report regarding the Sheriff's office by stating:

"The conclusion reached at the termination of the investigation disclosed that the Sheriff's Office and County Jail are being administered in a competent, efficient and up-to-date manner. The cooperation between the Sheriff's Office and the other law enforcement agencies in the county is exceptionally good. We find the morale of the personnel of the office to be quite high."

This report shows clearly that the Sheriff's Office has earned the approval of the people of Orange County. When Sheriff Musick was elected in 1946, he undertook certain definite obligations to give good law enforcement to the people of Orange County. These obligations have been faithfully performed. In announcing his candidacy, the Sheriff promises the continued discharge of all the duties of the office, with strict adherence to the principle of maximum service to all at the lowest possible cost commensurate with good service.

Sheriff Musick was reared in Orange County, educated in its schools and the University of Southern California, where he gained national recognition as an All-American football star. With the exception of the three years that he served with the United States Marines in the last war, he has been engaged in law enforcement work in Orange County since 1933. He is a member of various fraternal veteran and civic organizations, and resides with his wife and daughter at 1606 Louise St., Santa Ana.

The fact that Sheriff Musick possesses outstanding qualifications for the office is evidenced by the approval of the voters in every part of the County. In the 1946 election, Sheriff Musick as one of 6 candidates received an overwhelming majority of votes, and he pledges that if he is retained in office, he will continue to serve the people as their Sheriff and will consistently strive to justify the confidence placed in him.

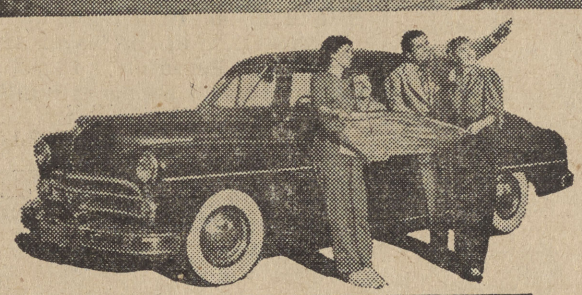
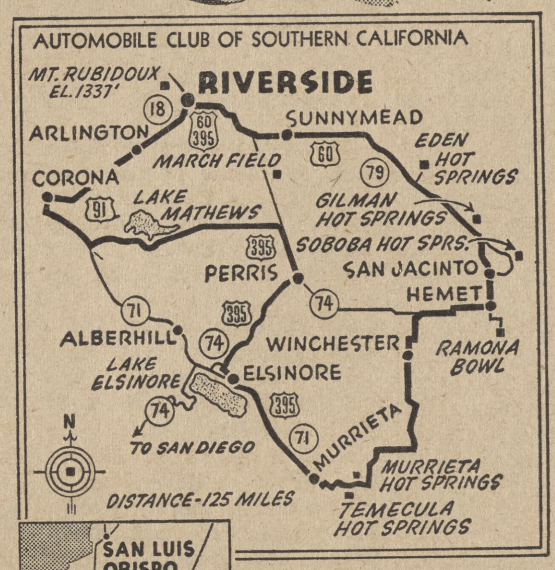
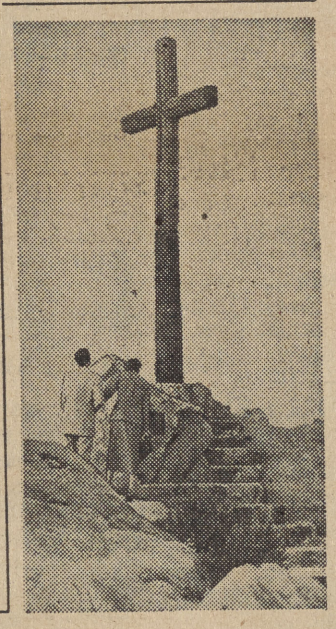
AUTO CLUB'S TRIP OF THE WEEK

Scenic Riverside County







A leisurely journey through scenic Western Riverside County can be both enlightening and enjoyable at this time of year if one takes the time to inspect a few of the many attractions. The scenery is contrastingly picturesque and those who are planning to attend Easter services at Mt. Rubidoux or the Ramona Pageant at Hemet this month might conveniently include this particular course in their itinerary.

● Plan at least a short stay in Riverside. In an hour or two, one may visit the famed Mission Inn (top photo), home of one of the world's finest collection of antiques, curios and relics, see the Peace Tower and Father Serra Cross (lower photo) at Mt. Rubidoux and drive down scenic Magnolia and Victoria Avenue, noting the famed Parent Navel Orange Tree at Magnolia and Arlington Avenues.

● The route between Sunnymead and Elsinore passes many famous mineral hot spring resorts. Hemet and San Jacinto are situated in the center of the Indian country where artists of ancient races have left rock paintings and carvings on boulders in the canyons. This area is now an important peach and apricot growing center.

● Center photo shows portion of Ramona Bowl, scene of the annual Ramona Pageant, in which local ranchers, merchants, judges, bankers and other leading citizens don greasepaint to reenact thrilling episodes from Helen Hunt Jackson's famed novel, "Ramona." The pageant this year is to be presented April 22-23, 29-30, and May 6-7.

● Lake Elsinore is the largest body of natural fresh water in Southern California. The resort town of Elsinore is located on the northern shores of the lake. Water sports, boating, and speedboat regattas are popular the year round and duck hunting in season.

● Corona, formerly called South Riverside, is surrounded by a circular boulevard. Around 1913 this track served as the setting for the famous old Corona Road Races in which Barney Oldfield, Ralph De Palma and other racing greats participated. Corona is now an important citrus center.

Kelley Plans Office Space

A real estate transaction in Cypress this week will give Haskell A. Kelley the property at 5446 Lincoln Ave. when the deal clears escrow. The sale to Kelley by Howard Marty, North Long Beach, was handled by Bill Gutosky, local realtor.

Present plans call for conversion into office spaces of the rooms in the small house

That we haven't mentioned Lena, Katrina and Wilhelmina in this column since they were tiny puppies. They are getting to be big girls now, and developing the characteristics of the little dachshunds they are—their noses lengthening out so that they no longer resemble a miniature Saint Bernard. All the dogs have been promised and the hardest part will be to give them up when they are big enough to leave their mother, Heidi.

Lynx Toy With Bellflower, 15-0

Testing three pitchers in nine innings of play, the Buena Park Lynx opened their season Sunday with a 15 to 0 win over the girls from Bellflower.

After only one run in the first inning, the Lynx pulled in seven in the second for the biggest scoring spree of the contest. The home team managed 20 hits while their opponents garnered one.

Ruby Moore showed her veteran spark by getting the longest hit of the tilt, a triple.

With Mary Whitney behind the plate, three pitchers faced the Bellflower batters. Tommy Slappey took the first three innings, Joan Alsup the second, and Bev Meissen the last three. Another Lynx who will be seeing action as a relief hurler this year, Maxine Clark, pitched the last inning for Bellflower, holding her Buena Park teamates without a bingle.

Games Coming Up

Next Wednesday the Lynx will travel to Baldwin Park to tangle with that outfit in another practice game, and Thursday night the Maywood girls will play hostess to the Buena Park team.

Television comes to Buena Park April 19 when Tom Harmon will announce the fray between the Lynx and Baldwin Park on the Buena Park diamond.

Regular Night Practices Now

Hill announced that the Lynx are now holding regular night practices on the Buena Park diamond every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel E. Davis and sons, Darrel Jr. and Bobby, spent some time here this week from their home in Richmond while Davis attended a school principal's meeting in Long Beach. He is dean of boys in a Richmond grammar school. He is the son of Mrs. Earl Sartwell, and also visited in the home of his brother, H .F. Davis on Crescent Ave.

Triangle Gals Fail to Place In Sweepstakes

Although they finished the regular league bowling race in the Wednesday Women's Handicap at the Buena Park Bowl in a blaze of glory and ended in third place, the Triangle Drive-in bowlers failed to place in the Sweepstakes competition.

Team captain Dorothy O'Neal was more fortunate in Santa Ana Monday night, however, as she picked up $51 in a Sweepstakes there. She copped the singles honors, the team got first, second and fourth in the doubles, and first in team competition.

ROBINSONS IN MISSOURI

A sad mission caused the sudden departure last Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robinson to Reger, Missouri. Mrs. Robinson's mother had been failing in health since the couple visited there last fall, and they had expected momentarily to be called east.

Although the Robinsons made good time in the cross-country race, they arrived on Friday too late. Mrs. Robinson's mother had passed away in the meantime.

Before returning to Cypress, it is expected that the couple will visit their son's family, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robinson, Jr., in Ames, Iowa.

OPEN HOUSE

Members of the auxiliary to the Ernest B. Kellogg Post No: 1680 of the VFW and the post will install new officers for the coming year on Thursday, April 13, at eight o'clock in the evening.

An open house is planned at the VFW hall in Santa Ana, where the affair will be held.

The public is cordially invited to attend, and especially members of similar organizations in the surrounding towns.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. James McCoy and their daughter, Miss Gayle McCoy, attended funeral services in Bakersfield on Tuesday for his aunt, Mrs. Loren McCoy. Her five sons and the Cypress McCoy acted as pall bearers.

Mrs. Howard Kopsho served her husband's favorite fried shrimp, at a lunch in honor of his birthday last Friday afternoon before he left for work. Small daughter Laura Jean and Mr. and Mrs. Al Sandoval, neighbors in "Cypress cottages" were also guests. The Kopsho's live at 5371 Camp St.

Miss Jackie Kelley of Oakland is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buzzo in their home on Danny Ave. She plans an extended visit.

Ensign N. Howery Visiting at Home

Ensign Norman K. Howery, USN, son of Mrs. Rosamond Howery, 5445 Camp St., was designated a naval aviator March 15. He was presented his aviator's diploma and "wings of gold" at a ceremony conducted by the commanding officer of the naval air station at Corpus Christi, Texas.

He was graduated from Long Beach Polytechnic in 1946, and enlisted in the navy shortly afterwards. As part of his training, Ensign Howery attended Long Beach City College, receiving an Associate of Arts degree.

Pre-flight and basic-flight training were taken at the Naval Air station in Pensacola, Florida, with advanced training in multi-engined aircraft aboard the Naval Air station in Corpus Christi.

Ensign Howery has been home on leave for the past few days. He will leave soon for San Diego, and will undergo operational flight training with the Pacific fleet.

VFW Auxiliary Fetes President

Mrs. Jean Kreissler was honored by fellow members of the auxiliary to Cypress Post No. 9847 of the VFW at a dinner in Santa Ana Saturday evening. Twenty members were present at the surprise affair to show their appreciation for the work done this past year by their leader. Mrs. Kreissler was re-elected president for a second term recently.

Held at Koo's in Santa Ana, the group enjoyed an eight-course dinner served family style. Mrs. Kreissler was presented with a lovely blouse in recognition of her service.

Those present were Ann Wedeking, Louise Begley, Patty Johnson, Bea Hahn, Olive Williams, Ruth Lockman, Della Priddy, Hazel Luty, Dorothy Smith, Betty Knauss, Ann Lucas, Beth Reisig, Ellen Jennings, Maxine Williams, Julia Bouse, Mavis O'Leary, Dorothy Everett, Francis Demiris, Virginia Daniel and Lucille Christopher.

FRIEND VISITS

Many years ago, two little Idaho Falls girls attended rural school through two years of high school together. Then the removal of the family of one separted them from 1918 until last week when Mrs. Blanche Whitehill came to visit Mrs. Gordon Sutton, 5582 Crescent St., for five days.

Occasional correspondence and news of each other through mutual friends had kept the friendship alive. Mrs. Whitehill moved from Idaho in February to San Francisco in order to be with her oldest son who lives there.

The time was spent reminiscing, with a few trips to points of interest, including dinner at Knott's and seeing the horse show.

VISITING NURSES AT AUXILIARY MEET

Members of the auxiliary to Cypress Post No. 9847 of the VFW acted as hostesses Monday evening at a pot luck dinner meeting in their hall at Miller road and Lincoln avenue.

Representatives of the Visiting Nurses association were guests. They showed slides to emphasize the work which their organization is attempting to perform.

It was hoped to interest other service organizations in the community in procuring a hospital bed to help the association. James Broadbelt, representing the Cypress Chamber of Commerce, was present and will report back to his group on the plans as presented. It is felt that something might be accomplished through the coordinating council being sponsored by the local chamber. All organizations have indicated their willingness to cooperate in establishing such a council.
